

UPDATE
Off Campus Attempted Rape

On November 10, 2017, at approximately 6:45 a.m., the Georgia Tech Police Department responded to University House Apartments Parking Deck in the Tech Square area after a Georgia Tech student observed a male in the parking deck who matched the description from the safety alert regarding the off campus attempted rape.

Officers were able to identify the suspect from the photograph and connected him with a similar incident in July in which he was arrested, given a criminal trespass warning and banned from campus.

GTPD officers detained the suspect for the Atlanta Police Department in whose jurisdiction the incident occurred. APD investigators questioned the suspect and charged him with Burglary and Criminal Attempt to Commit Rape. He is not affiliated with the Institute.
